CHARLES-TOWN, January 12, 1765.

Tueſday laſt the General Aſſembly of this province met purſuant to adjournment, but were prorogued to Thurſday; when, meeting again, his Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, was pleaſed to open the ſeſſion with the following ſpeech, viz.

Honourable Gentlemen of his Majeſty's Council,
Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Aſſembly,

DURING your receſs, a conſiderable number of German Proteſtants have arrived here, whom his Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to order to be ſettled in this province in a body, part of whom are already ſet out of town for that purpoſe.

Theſe unhappy people, brought into England by a perſon unable to perform his engagements to them, were left deſtitute and fell into the moſt extreme diſtreſs in London, from which, as ſoon as it reached the royal ear, they were raiſed by his Majeſty's compaſſionate and bountiful hand, and a number of gentlemen in London, led by the great example of the King, by liberal contributions provided for their ſubſiſtance; and to render the charity compleat, extended it to their eſtabliſhment in Carolina, until their own induſtry may ſupply them on their own lands.

Notwithſtanding all the precautions taken by the committee of London, intruſted with the management of the charitable contributions for the ſupport of theſe poor Germans, to ſecure their health during the voyage, all the paſſengers of one ſhip arrived very ſick. I lodged them in our Barracks, ordered them blankets, and other neceſſaries, from the ſtores there, a Phyſician and Nurſes to attend them. By theſe means, tho' ſeveral died ſoon after their arrival, under God's bleſſing, the reſt are now on the recovery. The committee of London have deſired, that the bounty uſually given to new ſettlers, may be paid to their agents here, to be applied towards the ſubſiſtance of theſe Emigrants; which, altho' that law is not at preſent in force, I doubt not, from the good faith which this province has always maintained, will be readily complied with.

I could not forbear, Gentlemen, being thus particular in communicating this event to you. This noble inſtance of private Britiſh charity warms me, and muſt affect yours and every humane heart, with a moſt ſenſible pleaſure. As it demands our praiſe, it will, I am certain, engage our imitation.

Our ſettlements beyond Beaufort, to the ſouth, and George-Town, to the north, are daily encreaſing, as are likewiſe thoſe on the weſtward, where the culture of Hemp and Wheat, objects well worth our encouragement, begin to be more generally attended to. Wherefore, as the eaſy obtaining that protection of their perſons and property which our laws afford, is the moſt effectual means of promoting the proſperity of a Britiſh people; I recommend to you, ſeriouſly to conſider of the diſtribution of juſtice in criminal and civil matters, under the beſt regulations, in thoſe remote parts, which may remove many of the great inconveniences thoſe people are now liable to, and will tend to ſuppreſs in a great degree, the idlers and vagabonds, who now infeſt and injure the induſtrious remote ſettlers too often with impunity.

The opening a certain communication with the neighbouring provinces, will promote our commerce. Governor Dobbs has informed me, that a poſt is already eſtabliſhed, for conveyance of letters from Virginia to North-Carolina, once every fortnight; and I propoſe to you, the continuation of it thro' this province.

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen,

You ſome time ago recommended that, inſtead of repairing Fort-Moore, a new fort ſhould be built at or above Stephens's Creek. In order to place the new fort in the moſt advantageous ſituation, as Captain Cochrane was about to viſit the king's troops under his command in our out-poſts, I deſired him, during his tour, to look out the moſt proper place on Savannah River, which might cover the flouriſhing new ſettlements of Britiſh, French, and Germans, near Long-Canes. He informs me, that he has found a ſpot, commanding an eaſy ford over Savannah River, about midway between the French and the German ſettlements, extremely proper on every account for that important ſervice. I deſire that you will make a proviſion for this expence, eſtimates whereof ſhall be laid before you.

As the poor French proteſtants, anxious to carry with them to Hillſborough, all the baggage they brought from France and England, have ſpent in waggon-hire ſo much of the money given by this province for their ſubſiſtance and eſtabliſhment, that the whole is now expended; I muſt therefore once more apply to you for an aſſiſtance to compleat your good intentions towards them. I ſhall order the account of their paſt expences to be laid before you.

I have received a meſſage from the Cherokees, requeſting me to ſend a proper perſon, who, in company with ſome of their nation, may mark out the boundaries between the Engliſh and them, to prevent diſputes and jealouſies of encroachments. This is become the more neceſſary, from the viſinity of our ſettlers attracted thither by the richneſs of thoſe lands; which I deſire you will enable me to comply with.

The Public-Treaſurer is ordered to lay before you the accounts of debts for various public ſervices for the paſt year, that you may make proviſion for the diſcharging of them.

Honourable Gentlemen of his Majeſty's Council,
Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Aſſembly,

I have ſo often aſſured you of my ſincere diſpoſition, as it is alſo my duty, and I have on ſo many occaſions experienced your readineſs, to promote the ſervice of his Majeſty, and the proſperity of this province; that I ſhall at preſent here reſt our public welfare, ſafely confiding that you will give due attendance and diſpatch, to whatever meaſures and whatever laws may be thought neceſſary and conducive to that great and deſirable end.

January 10th, 1765. WILLIAM BULL.

To the honourable WILLIAM BULL, Eſq; Lieutenant-Governor, in and over His Majeſty's Province of South-Carolina,

The humble ADDRESS of the COMMONS HOUSE of ASSEMBLY of the ſaid Province.

May it pleaſe your Honour,

WE his Majeſty's dutiful and loyal ſubjects, the commons houſe of aſſembly of this province, beg leave to return your honour our unfeigned thanks for your ſpeech made yeſterday in general aſſembly.

Nothing can exceed the pleaſure and ſatisfaction we have in meeting your honour at the opening of this ſeſſion, aſſuring us, that, from your experience of our readineſs to promote the ſervice of his Majeſty, and the proſperity of this province, you thereon reſt our public welfare, ſafely confiding, that we ſhall give due attention, and diſpatch, to whatever meaſures and whatever laws may be thought neceſſary, and conducive to that great and deſirable end. We aſſure your honour, that great and deſirable end ſhall continue to be only, and always, in our view, as the governing principle of all our actions; and as we are aſſuredly convinced from long experience, that it is ſo likewiſe of all your Honour's actions, we will not doubt of its happy and extenſive influence, ſo as to make this an altogether agreeable and ſatisfactory ſeſſion.

Your Honour may be particularly aſſured, that all due attention ſhall be paid to your recommendation concerning the German proteſtants, and that though the law relative to this matter is not at preſent in force, yet that good faith which this province has always maintained, and which your Honour makes us happy in declaring on this occaſion you doubt not will be maintained, ſhall be readily complied with.

The diſtribution of juſtice in criminal and civil matters, under the beſt regulations in our power, in thoſe remote parts of our ſettlements your Honour mentions, ſhall be conſidered in ſuch a manner, as, we hope, will remove, in a great meaſure, if not altogether, thoſe great inconveniences your Honour informs us, the people ſettled thereabouts are now liable to, and ſo as to tend to ſuppreſs the idlers and vagabonds, ſo troubleſome and injurious to the induſtrious inhabitants of thoſe diſtant places.

The moſt effectual means for the continuation of the poſt your Honour propoſes through this province from North-Carolina, which your Honour informs us is already eſtabliſhed, for the conveyance of letters thither from Virginia once a fortnight, ſhall not be neglected, as far as lies in our power.

As ſoon as your Honour lays before us, the eſtimate of the expence attending the building the fort deſigned to cover the flouriſhing new ſettlement near Long-Canes, which this houſe ſome time ago recommended to your Honour to be built for that purpoſe, that buſineſs ſhall meet with all poſſible conſideration and diſpatch.

That aſſiſtance your honour applies for, to compleat our good intentions with regard to the French proteſtants, ſhall be attended to, when the accounts of their paſt expences are laid before us.

Your honour's requeſt to be enabled to ſend a proper perſon, at the deſire of the Cherokees, amongſt them, to aſſiſt in marking out the boundaries between the Engliſh and them, ſhall be duly conſidered.

The public accompts for the various ſervices of the laſt year, your honour may depend, ſhall meet with all the conſideration and diſpatch that his Majeſty's honour and our duty to our conſtituents require.

In the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly, the 11th day of January 1765.
By Order of the Houſe,
RAWLINS LOWNDES, Speaker.

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen,

I RETURN you my hearty thanks for this loyal addreſs. The readineſs you expreſs to take into conſideration the ſeveral matters for the ſervice of his Majeſty and this province recommended to you, confirm my ſentiments which your paſt behaviour had formed.

To your hopes, that this will be an agreeable and ſatisfactory ſeſſion of the general aſſembly: Gives me leave to add mine alſo, and to obſerve, that ſuch cannot fail to render your conſtituents, and your country happy.

I give you my thanks, and ſhall endeavour to merit the good opinion you are pleaſed to entertain of my actions, by continuing to act upon the ſame upright principles.

January 11th, 1765. WILLIAM BULL.

JOHN CATEN informs me, of an old dark brown mare, branded on the mounting ſhoulder like PX, and on the ſide of her head like a figure 3 with a circle round it, and hath a five year old mare colt unbranded, running with her. The owner muſt prove his property before.

THOMAS CATEN.

RAN away from me the ſubſcriber, on Thurſday October 4th, 1764. A tall negroe fellow, named SAUNDY, of the Mandingo country, near ſix feet high, very much pitted with the ſmall pox in the face; had on, when he went away, an oſnabrug ſhirt and trowſers, a green woollen jacket, with white metal buttons, walks very upright, his heels are very long, was purchaſed at Mr. Prioleau's vendue the 12th of April laſt. Whoever will apprehend the ſaid negro fellow, and bring him to me ſhall have a reward of Ten pounds currency; but, whoever will give information where he is harboured, ſo that the offender or offenders may be brought to juſtice, if by a white perſon, ſhall be paid, on conviction, the ſum of Twenty pounds, if by a negro Ten pounds. All maſters of veſſels, and others are hereby cautioned not to carry off the ſaid fellow, on pain of being proſecuted with the utmoſt ſeverity of the law. If the ſaid negro will come home to me of his own accord, he ſhall be forgiven.
